Master Class Three Day Module on Direct and Indirect Esthetics

Master class three day Esthetic hands on training on direct anterior composites, laminate veneers, All ceramic crowns and intra oral dental photography is for dentists who want to deliver the highest standards of esthetic care to their patients and for those who want to embark on an esthetic journey to get certified by the European society of cosmetic dentistry. This clinically oriented mentorship program would train you on the three foundational principles namely direct esthetics with composites ,indirect esthetics with lithium disilicate laminate veneers or with All ceramic crowns based on the clinical scenario. This module equips a clinician with skills and knowledge to plan the treatment phase, clinically execute and photographically document their esthetic work. This process would help in better lab communication, improving patient awareness and enabling ESCD certification process.

European Society of Cosmetic Dentistry (ESCD):

European society of cosmetic dentistry was founded in 2003 by a group of practising dentists dental technicians, dental professors from different universities from all over Europe. The European society encourages skilled practitioners and dental technicians in the field of esthetic dentistry. ESCD has about more than 30 countries all over the world as affiliates of the society. ESCD has a certification program which accreditates and acknowledges the highly skilled practitioners in Esthetic work as their certified member.

Root Canal Foundation (RCF):

Root Canal Foundation was established by Dr V Gopikrishna, an internationally acclaimed academician and endodontist as a treatment and resource centre for mentoring dentists in enhancing their clinical skills. RCF has empowered more than 1300 dentists from over 25 countries through their transformational training modules. RCF has state of the art training facilities inclusive of 8 Dental Operating microscopes, phantom head training simulators and a-v facilities for interactive teaching and learning. RCF has successfully completed more than 100 training modules so far over the past 10 years.

Testimonials

It was an indeed 3 days intensive course for the ESTHETIC Masterclass..
Great learning experience from the so spectacular mentors.
It was amazing joining the course...
And I'll try to add up all the learning in my clinical practice.
Thanks Dr Abby for the wonderful Photography sessions.
I'll definitely work for the ESCD CERTIFICATION and would need your guidance Sir.
Thanks a lot ROOT CANAL FOUNDATION.
- Dr. Ronak Chowdhury

Thankyou Rootcanal Foundation for this wonderful platform in esthetics.
I thank all the mentors Dr.Deepak, Dr.Abby and Dr.Lakshmi for imparting knowledge and training us.
I thank Dr.Gopikrishna sir, the man behind the show and all the support staff .
- Dr.Mahendrael

It was a wonderful learning experience from Rootcanal Foundation.
Rootcanal Foundation is known for its structured and well planned courses and this is no less.
The mentors were just incredible! It was kind of the mentors to clear all our doubts at any point of time (though we bombarded you with plenty of doubts) that shows how passionate you are!
The hospitality shown by the staff of Rootcanal foundation was top notch. thank you guys!
- Dr.Dhivya Prasana

Dr. Deepak Mehta you were awesome sir.
Couldn't find a better esthetic master and mentor than you Sir.
I'll slowly use your teachings in my practice and share the photos with you for your kind feedback.
